

We hope and pray you and all of your loved ones are safe and healthy during this challenging time. It is heartbreaking for us that so many members will not be able to visit the wonderful properties we were delighted to arrange for them in the coming months. The thought of so many cancelled vacations and celebrations and awesome properties sitting empty is like a knife in my heart. We LOVE arranging outstanding properties for our TTT family and we're crushed that so many will not be able to enjoy the excellent trips you had planned and were so eagerly anticipating.

We wish we could offer refunds or reschedules for all who are cancelling travel plans, but we cannot as it would put us out of business. Our documents and agreements have always said that exchange fees and credits for all trades are non-refundable and non-transferable. Property owners fulfilled their obligation by committing to host, they cannot be asked to offer additional dates in the future for cancelled trades.

Until things get a little more back to normal and people start traveling again, I'll take a temporary break from sending our weekly newsletters on Fridays. Our offices will remain open as always from 9am - 5pm Atlantic Time, Monday through Friday.

Please let us know whenever there's anything we can do for you!

All the best,
Leah

'And the people stayed home. And read books, and listened, and rested, and exercised, and made art, and played games, and learned new ways of being, and were still. And listened more deeply.

Some meditated, some prayed, some danced. Some met their shadows. And the people began to think differently.

And the people healed. And, in the absence of people living in ignorant, dangerous, mindless, and heartless ways, the earth began to heal.

And when the danger passed, and the people joined together again, they grieved their losses, and made new choices, and dreamed new images, and created new ways to live and heal the earth fully, as they had been healed.
