

Thank you so much to all members who have deposited high season weeks during our 28th Anniversary Celebration to receive 1000 Bonus Credits. The deadline for depositing weeks to receive Bonus Credits is next Friday, August 30.

To clarify, I wanted to let everyone know the difference between "depositing" dates and "offering" dates. "Depositing" dates is a commitment and "offering" dates is not a commitment.

Depositing dates means signing a document called a "Host Intent" to reserve high season dates at least 60 days in advance. You receive the credits immediately for deposited dates and retain the credits whether or not the deposited dates are booked by members.

For weeks less than 60 days in advance and for weeks which are not high season, you can "offer" available dates by posting them on our website or simply ask us to post them for you. You will receive credits if offered dates are booked by members. To "offer" dates, you do not need to sign a "Host Intent" and you do not need to hold offered dates for us unless they are booked by a member. Offering dates is simply letting members know that the dates are likely to be available for exchange and you are always free to accept or decline inquiries from members when you offer dates.

"Deposited" dates and "offered" dates show up on the "Availabilities" page of our website, which is a good reason to post all dates which may be available for trade because it gives your property more exposure. The "Availabilities" page is also a great place to browse for vacation ideas! Here's a link to view it:

Today's five favorites are exciting exchange availabilities worldwide. Please let us know if you would like to visit these or other members' properties, or if you have available dates you would like to trade in your vacation property for stays in vacation homes and villas, boutique hotels, resorts, spas, castles, chateaux, penthouses, private islands, yachts and megayachts around the globe.

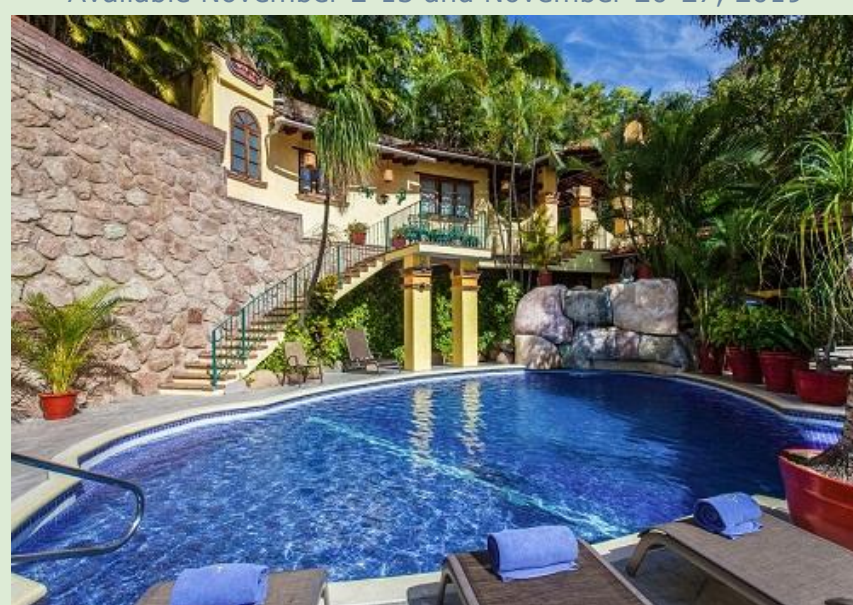

Thank you so much, we wish you a wonderful weekend!

All the best,
Leah
